

THE NEW YORK HERALD'S SPECIAL PART OF THE WORLD

NEARLY THREE HUNDRED READY FOR CIRCUS TO-DAY Several Animal Acts to Be Features of Big Show at the Garden.

NOTICE TO MARINERS THE NEW YORK HERALD'S Ship News Office is in the Barge Office. Ship news information given by U. S. Navy Department Daily Shipping Bulletin. Telephone Bowling Green 9960.

CLOSING OF MAILS. At the Foreign Station (corner of Morton and West streets) foreign mail closes half an hour before the closing of the Central Post Office.

Kids swarmed about Madison Square Garden yesterday afternoon like flies around a molasses jug. A careful observer counted 163 small boys and ten small girls on the Twenty-sixth street side of the Garden alone and in the small space occupied by the iron outside stairways and balconies leading to the various tiers of seats, and the whole lot of them were endeavoring to insinuate themselves into the midst of the circus rehearsal.

It's a grand boys' circus this year, better than ever, according to reports that have reached the kids. Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey's have promised them some new animal acts; three steel arenas have been shown performing aerial stunts, leopards and lions and finally Tiger, Shere Khan himself, ten feet of beautifully striped wildness.

Just before daylight yesterday and before there were any kids around the Garden at all, which was obviously pretty low down on the part of the circus, taking advantage of the kids that they had a special rehearsal, single file, in columns of twos, threes or sixes; wheeling to the right or left, all pivoting, a dozen other movements done in perfect concert by six iron grays, black and white black and white the circus doesn't open until this afternoon at 3 it probably isn't fair to say too much about what the new delights are.

The most interesting thing around the circus these days is John Daniel, the new gorilla. They make as much fuss over John as if he were one of the owners. He is sufficiently tame to constitute a real novelty, John being the third, one is told, that has ever been brought to this country.

There was a lively time in Freak Hall at the Garden yesterday afternoon when John Daniel was transferred from the cage in which he had been brought from England to a new one which had been built for him. They got him changed over without much difficulty, but when he found that the walls of the cage were lined with sheet iron he got so nervous that he howled and whined the resounding walls as he told the world he didn't care for that cage. They put him in another cage and he went as if to pieces—no more viciously but tore it to pieces—not viciously but tore it to pieces—as a bad boy might have done.

Once they had him held they had to do some work to pick it to pieces and was doing pretty well when they batted him with a few heavy planks and spikes. Oswald, the trainer, got into the cage with the gorilla yet and won't until he studies the beast's disposition.

Alongside of John Daniel's cage are the cages of the chimpanzees, and not far away the baby monkey and its mother, about the most appealing little sight in the entire place.

A dress rehearsal was held last night in which the entire performance was run through. The formal opening of this afternoon and the circus will be here for five weeks.
